Retirement

After 30 years

After thirty years of dedicated service, our Chief Financial Officer, Gregg Sweetman, will be retiring from his position effective January 31, 2025.

Since joining Midland in October of 1994, Gregg has been an instrumental part of our growth and success, guiding Midland with exceptional financial stewardship, strategic insight and an unwavering commitment to our mission. Under his leadership, which included serving as interim President and CEO, Midland has achieved considerable growth, an improvement in our operational efficiencies all while maintaining financial stability.

Gregg's vision, professionalism and unwavering commitment to Midland's values have left a lasting impact on our organization. As a trusted leader, he has also been an invaluable mentor to many of us and his legacy will continue to inspire our mission at Midland.

Please join me in expressing our heartfelt gratitude to Gregg for his outstanding service and wishing both him and his family the very best in the next chapter of life.

From the Desk of Shawn M. McInerney,
President and CEO

In follow up to our previous communication, Midland will be working on the development of our next Strategic Plan. We encourage broad Stakeholder's input. Two Stakeholders Sessions have been scheduled. The dates are as follows: February 7, 2025, at 7 pm and February 13, 2025, at 4 pm. Both sessions will be held in Midland's Great Room (located above the multipurpose room).

Your input is valuable as we together forge our three year plan of services and supports for our students in the school and the individuals we serve and support across Midland's adult programs.

Any individual who is interested in participating in the development of the plan should RSVP to attend one of the scheduled sessions. To register, please scan the QRcode.

Tax Time Tips

The W-2 tax statements for 2024 will be available for viewing and downloading in a PDF format by logging into your ADP portal (Pay & Tax Statements) this month. Paper copies will also be mailed; however, any staff who have opted for paperless tax statements will not receive these forms by mail.

The 1095-C forms are currently being reviewed and will be mailed out to all full-time employees. The 1095-C forms provides health coverage information for you and your covered dependents for tax reporting purposes. Staff are required to report and provide proof of minimum health coverage for your and your covered dependents, if any, on your federal income tax return.

All statements will be available no later than January 31, 2025.
